2018 PROGRESS SUMMARY REPORT

2018 Community Investment Grant Summary Report

Freedom First Credit Union supports community-based organizations in their efforts to break down barriers, enable people to fully participate as local citizens, and provide opportunities to help families achieve economic success and a better quality of life. The projects we fund give special consideration to low-income working families.

All awardees are required to complete our 2018 Community Investment Grant Progress Summary Report.

This 12 month progress summary report will help Freedom First report on impact goals, support for the community, and gauge the effectiveness of the grant program.
